Ladies and Gents, Mark Your Calendar for A Casino Cruise!

There's nothing like being a little spontaneous, and that's exactly what a casino cruise has to offer – bet a lucky number and you're up a hundred bucks (and dinner's on you)! But, there is something to say about not taking a gamble before you arrive on a casino cruise. In fact, we actually advise that you should leave the gambling to the Big "M" Casino Cruise and pre-plan your trip.

Why take any bets?

We say plan ahead for a few reasons. The first is because the Big "M" Casino Cruise is only open to guests 21 years of age and older—it being a gambling cruise and all. And we know babysitters book up in advance (at least the good ones). So depending how much you love your kids (just kidding), set a day, or two, or three, or however many you want, aside so that you can enjoy the casino cruise without any last minute headaches.

We also have special deals for our different guests. So, it's a good idea to decide what date and time you want to cruise prior to your arrival. Here are some things to consider:

The best deals are Tuesdays and Fridays if you are 55+. Who doesn't like a cruise off beautiful Little River Inlet with a casino in tow!

If you're more interested in an exciting and fun party cruise atmosphere, Friday and Saturday evening cruises should be your pick.

Trying to avoid crowds?

The best selection of available slots and table games is on Sundays and Wednesdays, while everybody else is watching their favorite shows at home.

And if you're in it for the food, the BEST Buffet is Wednesday and Friday evening!

Make your reservations in advance.

Our final logistical tips for planning ahead are that if you are prone to motion sickness take appropriate medication one hour prior to ship departure.

And please! Leave home in plenty of time to arrive about 45 minutes prior to ship schedule departure time; you do not want to try the long jump from the dock to the boat after we take off.

There is plenty of free parking awaiting your arrival.

South Carolina Casino Cruise Garb Guide

It does not surprise us that our South Carolina Casino Cruise guests are true fashionistas, and for this reason, we like to add in a couple of tips for dressing for a Big “M” South Carolina Casino Cruise.

Some of you may prefer the Joan Collin’s Dynasty wardrobe complete with shoulder pads and a kaleidoscope of sparkles, but just in case you don’t, don’t feel pressured to dress like you’re going to a flashy Vegas casino or making a cameo on a 1980’s soap opera. (That is, of course, unless that’s your thing).

We always like to point out that the keyword in South Carolina Casino Cruise is South Carolina (and the casino cruise is pretty important, too, seeing that it happens to be a casino cruise). When we say South Carolina, tropical relaxation and unlimited fun should come to mind, and our cruise reflects that image. So for our South Carolina Casino Cruise, remember you’ll be on a 5-hour FUN cruise on the Atlantic. South Carolina seasonal casual attire is recommended. Comfortable shoes for walking and a jacket or sweater for cooler evenings is always nice to bring along. Summer attire is comfortable, casual.

So it’s pretty simple: on your South Carolina Casino Cruise, dress for, well, a Fun South Carolina Casino Cruise.

Casino SC Packing List: The Do's and Don'ts

What should you bring to your Big "M" Casino SC? It's a big question for those who haven't boarded a Casino SC Cruise before. But don't be scared, we have a very easy answer, and it does NOT involve packing a purse like Mary Poppins with anything and everything.

In fact, hopefully, our first tip for what to pack with you could not fit into a bag... You should most definitely bring a festive and positive attitude as well as some of your family and friends whose company you will enjoy.

In one of our earlier tips for a Big "M" Casino SC Cruise, we mentioned that besides bringing your cool awesome self aboard, bring a jacket or sweater for cooler evenings if you tend to get cold—perhaps something light and scrunchable that you can carry around easily with you or pack into your bag.

Also, please don't be concerned about carrying cartoonish money bags on the ship so you have cash on you at all times. The Big "M" Casino SC is equipped with ATM machines so you can access instant cash onboard.

Every passenger must present a government issued photo ID. If you bring your camera, photos are prohibited inside the casino. If you are lucky, you may witness dolphins playfully swimming alongside the ship. For those people who may be superstitious, we recommend you bring your favorite "GOOD LUCK" charm whether it's a rabbit's foot or a penny you've had since the Reagan administration!

When in Rome...On a South Carolina Gambling Cruise? Play the Games!

We mentioned in our previous Tip of the what to bring “Do’s and Don’ts” that you might be lucky enough to spot dolphins playfully swimming alongside the cruise, but just in case you don’t, you might want to have some others reasons to be on South Carolina Gambling Cruise. Like, uh, gambling?

On behalf of the Big “M” South Carolina Gambling Cruise, we recommend that you learn to play casino games! Why? Because it will make your cruise ten times more enjoyable and exciting. Once the ship departs from the dock, you may choose to eat your meal immediately or take advantage of the friendly staff providing instructions on how to play a plethora of casino games.

We offer lessons in Craps which, interesting fact, yields the best odds for you in the casino. Plus, the Big “M” South Carolina Gambling Cruise is the BEST casino in South Carolina where you can play this game. Did you know that?

We also offer lessons in Roulette, another fun and exciting game you can play in our South Carolina casino.

Or, we can teach you the tricks of counting to twenty-one in a game of Black Jack. If slots is your game you can ask any slot attendant the “how to play” basics of nearly 250 of South Carolina’s loosest slots onboard the Big “M” Casino. They will direct you to your favorite machines if you want to start playing those. Recently, popular new nickel slot machines were added to the first deck!

There is no South Carolina Gambling Cruise like ours, and we want you to get the most out of your experience with us!

Take Advantage of the Deals Your SC Casino Cruise Offers! Our SC Casino Cruise makes it our mission to make our guests our priority and to get the most of their time on our cruise.
